In the Archdiocese

World Day of Prayer for Vocations Sunday, May 7

Dear People of God, we live in challenging times. So, I ask you to pray for the priests that we already have, that they be faithful and strong examples of priestly ministry. I ask you to pray for our seminarians and those considering a calling to the priesthood, that the Church foster a generation of good and holy priests, filled with love, the fire of the Holy Spirit, and gentleness of heart towards God's People.

The journey towards the priesthood begins within the context of the family (the "first school" of our faith), so I want to encourage you with my own prayers. I especially urge you to be bold in praying for priestly vocations, even planting the seed of a religious vocation in the lives of your own children.

As you can imagine, there is a substantial cost to forming our candidates for priesthood academically, spiritually, humanly and pastorally at the seminary. So, I welcome your generous financial support in the special collection that will be taken up next Sunday to help form zealous and capable priests for our generation and the next.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

✠Terrence Prendergast, S.J.
