The Gospel This Sunday: Often in the Gospel of Luke, we see Jesus going off by himself to pray. This time, his heavenly Father enables him to know himself and his Father's will for him. It also gave him the strength to undertake his ministry. In today's reading, Peter has come to know Jesus' identity as the Christ or Messiah, the long awaited by Israel. But Jesus has to teach his disciples what his messiahship means: taking up the cross daily and losing one's life in order to save it.

“Profession of faith is an act both personal and communitarian. It is the Church that is the primary subject of faith. In the faith of the Christian community, each individual receives baptism, an effective sign of entry into the people of believers in order to obtain salvation.”

~Pope Benedict XVI, Apostolic Letter, Porta Fidei
