Types of Prayer: In the next five weeks we shall be talking about the types of prayer. Inasmuch as we have to pray all the time, we also have to know how to pray. We shall deal with the following types of prayer: Blessing and adoration, Prayer of petition, Prayer of Intercession, Prayer of Thanksgiving and Prayer of Praise. The following is the meaning of Blessing and adoration and we are being guided by Catechism of The Catholic Church 2626-2628.

Blessing and Adoration: Blessing expresses the basic movement of Christian prayer: it is an encounter between God and man. In blessing, God's gift, and man's acceptance of it are united in dialogue with each other. The prayer of blessing is man's response to God's gifts: because God blesses, the human heart can in return bless the One who is the source of every blessing.

Two fundamental forms express this movement: our prayer ascends in the Holy Spirit through Christ to the Father - we bless him for having blessed us; it implores the grace of the Holy Spirit that descends through Christ from the Father - he blesses us.

Adoration is the first attitude of man acknowledging that he is a creature before his Creator. It exalts the greatness of the Lord who made us and the almighty power of the Savior who sets us free from evil. Adoration is homage of the spirit to the "King of Glory," respectful silence in the presence of the "ever greater" God. Adoration of the thrice holy and sovereign God of love blends with humility and gives assurance to our supplications.
