REV. FR. MARTIN NDYANABO, PASTOR

REV. MR. FRED JARDINE, PERMANENT DEACON

St. Elizabeth Parish is a faith-filled community, built on the example of hospitality shown by St. Elizabeth herself. We welcome and celebrate people from all walks of life, and we strive to learn from Sacred Scripture, our Catholic tradition, the Sacraments, and one another.

We are committed to nurturing the spiritual, physical, and emotional well-being of all we encounter. Above all, we spread the joy and love of Christ's Gospel of life in our Parish, neighborhood, and to all nations.

Fr. Martin's Corner

Death in The Family: I think it has always been known that of all the constants, nothing is more so than death. It is there for all of us and it is our only way to the Heavenly Father. However, once in a while it feels like it has been a bit too much and I feel like this has been the case for our parish in recent weeks. In a short period of time, we lost our members: Helen O'Connor, Patricia Murphy, Sarah Bowie, Catherine McSorley and as I write this, Diane O'Gorman and Lu Htoo are yet to be buried.

Every death is a fright on its own but this time I personally was almost getting to the breaking point and I have heard the same from parishioners as well. It feels like death is coming really close. This note is to offer my condolences to all that have missed their loved ones; those from our parish and those from outside our parish. We have always looked out for each other and I appreciate the Masses offered for those that have passed. We continue to pray for each other and pray for the repose of the soul of our dear loved ones.

I am suggesting that during the month of November when we offer Masses for the dead that we set apart one day when we offer Mass for these people that have died this year. On that day we shall invite the families of these people and have a community Mass and pray for all of them as one family. I feel that they will appreciate that.

On a positive note, our Children Liturgy has returned from the summer holiday and the families seem to be growing. This is the real sign of the resurrection of those who have departed as long as they are replaced by the those that are born and received into the church in baptism. This gives us hope that it is through death that we are given new life. We continue to pray for our loved ones. Each of those was a pillar of our community in some way and we sorely miss them.
