THANK YOU FOR 2023!

As we bid adieu to the grace-filled year of 2023, we extend our profound gratitude to each of you for your unwavering support and active participation in the Sacramental life of our parish. Your devotion to events such as the Kingdom Camp and Lifeteen Camp and your fervent commitment to various Youth Ministries and fundraising endeavors have enriched our faith community. Your collective presence at liturgical celebrations and spiritual gatherings has deepened the bonds of our communal journey in Christ.

As we eagerly anticipate the dawn of 2024, our hearts are filled with joy and gratitude, especially with the completion of our newly constructed sanctuary. This sacred space will serve as a haven for encountering the divine presence in the Sacraments, where we shall draw closer to the Eucharistic mystery and the grace it imparts. May the Sacraments be a source of abundant blessings, and may the Holy Eucharist unite us in love and faith throughout the year.
