HUMILITY OF THE HEART

Humility is a virtue that belongs essentially to Christ, not only as man, but more especially as God, because with God to be good, holy and merciful is not virtue but nature, and humility is only a virtue. God cannot exalt Himself above what He is, in His most high Being, nor can He increase His vast and infinite greatness; but He can humiliate Himself as in fact He did humiliate and lower Himself. "He humbled Himself, He emptied Himself," revealing Himself to us, through His humility, as the Lord of all virtues, the conqueror of the world, of death, hell and Sin. No greater example of humility can be given than that of the Only Son of God when "the Word was made Flesh." Nothing could be more sublime than the words of St. John's Gospel, "In principio erat Verbum; in the beginning was the Word." And no abasement can be deeper than that which follows: "Et Verbum caro factum est; And the Word was made Flesh." By this union of the Creator with the creature the Highest was united with the lowest. Jesus Christ summed up all His heavenly doctrine in humility and before teaching it, it was His will to practise it perfectly Himself. - Humility of the Heart, Fr. Cajetan Mary Da Bergamo
