THE WILL OF GOD

Our Lady is united to Jesus by a double bond. First of all because, when she accepted the Angel's message, she united herself intimately to God's will in a way we can scarcely comprehend. At the same time she acquired a spiritual motherhood over the Son whom she conceived so that she was bound still more closely to that family which Jesus has now proclaimed in the presence of his disciples. We have the immense joy of being able to belong, with ties stronger than those of blood, to Christ's family, depending on the extent to which we carry out God's will. So the disciple of Christ should say, as did his Master, My good is to do the will of him who sent me... In our prayer today we can examine ourselves on whether we always have a desire to do what God wants of us, in big things as in small; in what we like and in what we dislike. We can ask our Mother Mary to teach us to love this holy Will in everything that happens, even in what we find hard to understand or interpret adequately. - Conversations with God, Fr. Francis Fernandez
