THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES ARE FOR THE WHOLE WORLD

The main reason the Holy Spirit inspired St. Luke to write the Acts of the Apostles is crystal clear in the pages of that book. But I wonder how many of us who have read and listened to readings from the Acts have realized what that purpose is. Things can be missed when we hear them piecemeal, and there are a great many particular episodes in the Acts which temporarily take center stage. But overall, the purpose of the book is to demonstrate beyond doubt that God's salvific work through Jesus Christ is not only for the Jews, but also for the Gentiles.

We are fortunate to have this book for many reasons, of course. It gives us innumerable details about the life of the Church during the apostolic age, details which are critical to our understanding of everything from its hierarchy to its missionary spirit. From this book we learn new things about the descent of the Holy Spirit on the apostles, and the operations of the Holy Spirit generally. We also learn the fundamental pattern of Christian preaching and gain important insights into the community life of the first Christians. The book recounts astonishing miracles which both consoled the early believers and helped their number to grow. It offers fresh details about key figures like Peter and James, and considerable information about the remarkable life and ministry of St. Paul. - Dr. Jeff Mirus

ANNIVERSARY ORDINATION

This weekend we celebrate the 18th year ordination of Fr. Hansoo and 1st year of ordination of Fr. Fraser.

On behalf of the St. Barnabas Parish community, we would like to extend our warmest congratulations to Fr. Hansoo Park and Fr. Fraser McLaren on the anniversary of their ordination. Your dedication to serving God and our community is an inspiration to us all. We are grateful for your continued commitment to spreading God's love and for the many ways in which you enrich our lives. May God bless you abundantly on this special day and always.
