GOD WANTS YOU HAPPY

All things are possible. Life in abundance. In other words, there is real hope for all of us. If we are willing to accept and collaborate with God's desires and power to save us from our own self-destructive devices, no matter our past, he will help us becoming flourishing, happy, spirit-filled people. Jesus' final response clarifies that he didn't have it in for the rich, or any other class of people. He just knew that in the case of this rich man, the attachment to his riches was tearing him down, eating him up, and limiting his potential for personal fulfillment and redemption. Mark says in his Gospel, as we saw earlier, "Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, 'You lack one thing...'" With hearts fully open, we can read in this biblical story that Jesus was concerned about what good thing was lacking in this man's life. And he wanted that for him! That's good news for us: most us are attached to things or attitudes or beliefs that keep us lacking one or many good things God wants for us. - God Wants You Happy: From Self-Help to God's Help, Jonathan Morris
