COPING STRATEGIES DURING THE PANDEMIC

Dear Parishioners:

Last year I shared with this reflection. With the new restrictions, I wish to share this again with some updates for today’s situation:

1. Keep a routine: Try as best you can to maintain a daily routine. Keep your regular sleep cycle. Make healthy, eating choices, and incorporate some daily physical exercise like walking or cycling.

2. Keep organized: If you begin a new task or project, try to see it to the end. With this period of uncertainty, we need to feel the satisfaction of completing a task. Plan your daily activity and chores for yourself and your family. Getting the children involved will be beneficial to them.

3. See the horizon. By now we have become accustomed to the practices that can help minimize the spread, such as, social distancing, wearing face masks in public places indoors, limiting travel, sanitizing, etc. In a few months we expect that most Canadians who want to receive the vaccine will have the opportunity to be vaccinated. That’s very good news considering where we were last year with a lot of uncertainty.

4. Know what you can and cannot control. Our circumstances are dictated by forces beyond our control. Not having control can make us feel helpless. However, rather than wallowing in our state of helplessness we can make good use of our time by reaching out to family, friends and neighbours. We can also read, take up a new hobby or craft or find creative ways to have fun as a family.

5. Prayer: Above all, let us turn to the power of prayer. Make room for personal prayer and reflection. Our faith and belief in Providence will help us get through this crisis. Hope in the face of a great global crisis is needed more than ever. It is not false optimism. It is hope based on the belief of the healing and loving power of our God and Risen Lord.

God bless,

Fr. Peter Ciallella
