Dear Parishioners:

I wish to share with you the second part of an article that appeared in the Catholic Register regarding the successful Campaigns we have undertaken here at Blessed Sacrament and St. Anthony Daniel.

The Catholic Register, July 12, 2019

...In addition, the success of the campaign “gives us breathing room to make investments in programs and activities that we would not have considered in the past,” Fr. Peter Ciallella said. “For example, in the fall we are inviting a Catholic evangelization team to lead a retreat for our Grade 8 students. That requires resources and a commitment. Now, we don’t always have to defer our funds for the physical structure. We can look at ways to invest in our young people and families.”

Ciallella also noted that his churches are bucking a trend seen elsewhere in Canada.

“A recent article in The Catholic Register cited a statistic of the rate of the closures of Christian churches (Catholic and Protestant) in Canada: approximately 800 per year. Most churches are in rural areas, where there are diminishing populations and less resources to draw from. I’m happy to say that both Blessed Sacrament and St. Anthony Daniel will not fall in that category. We will be sustainable for years to come.”

Beyond the sheer number of dollars raised by St. Anthony Daniel and Blessed Sacrament, perhaps more impressive is the campaign participation rate — more than 60 per cent for Blessed Sacrament and more than 70 per cent for St. Anthony Daniel. The funding “match” was a key reason for the high participation rate, Ciallella said, as well as the tireless work of parish volunteers.

Along with more than $1.6 million in gifts from other supportive donors and organizations, the One Heart, One Soul Campaign has raised more than $6.5 million of the overall $35 million goal. The parishes of the Pilot Wave have had other successes...

As Ciallella looks back on his parishes’ success, the campaign theme resonates with him. “The theme of ‘One Heart, One Soul’ (Acts 4:32) speaks volumes,” he said. “It speaks of our deep Christian roots of attending to the needs of all the members of the family of God, as well as the communities in need. St. Paul in his work of evangelization always asked the communities that had more to help those in need (Galatians 2:10).

“The recent popes, like St. John Paul II, Benedict and Francis, use the term ‘solidarity.’ Solidarity helps both the giver and the receiver. The one receiving can do more in terms of ministry and outreach, and the one giving receives a sense of gratification and contentment knowing that the assistance they offer can have far-reaching impact.”
