Church of the Cenacle, the Upper Room of the Last Supper

Dear Parishioners:

Shalom alechem! The Hebrew expression for Peace upon you! Allow me to share with you some thoughts as we continue the Holy Land Pilgrimage.

As I write this message, we have passed the midpoint of the Pilgrimage. We began in the Galilee region focusing on the areas where Jesus initiated his public ministry, such as Nazareth, Cana, Capernaum, the River Jordan and the Sea of Galilee. We also had a chance to visit other historical sites like Petra (Jordan), the Dead Sea, Masada and Qumran. We finally arrived in the holy City of Jerusalem on Sunday. What an emotional moment for all of us.

We now begin to walk with Jesus towards the climax of his ministry - his passion, death and resurrection. It has truly been an amazing experience. On Monday we celebrated Mass in the Church of the Cenacle, the Upper Room where Jesus celebrated the Last Supper. In a way, it's the first site of the "Blessed Sacrament." We said a special prayer for you. In a few days we shall return back home. Our Pilgrimage here in the Holy Land will soon come to an end but our life journey will begin anew.

We look forward to sharing with you our wonderful experiences here in the Holy Land.

God bless,
Fr. Peter Ciallella
