Dear Parishioners:

Shalom alechem! The Hebrew expression for Peace upon you! Allow me to share with you some thoughts as we begin the Holy Land Pilgrimage.

As I write this message, I see the beautiful view from my hotel room of the magnificent Basilica Church of the Annunciation in Nazareth. This is the place where the Angel Gabriel appeared to Mary and brought the glad tidings that she would be the Mother of the Son of God. Mary said yes and so the Incarnate Word of God was conceived in Mary. This is where it all began for the Christian journey of faith.

How providential it is that our Pilgrimage begins here. After a ten hour flight and adjusting to the time change, I could say with confidence that all 40 of us pilgrims are in good spirits. Our bodies may be a little tired, but after a good night's rest we will begin Day 2. We concluded the first day with a Solemn Mass of the Annunciation of the Lord at this magnificent Basilica. We offered this Mass for all our intentions, including for you dear Parishioners back at home. Please continue to pray for us as we pray for you. May our Blessed Mother of the Annunciation intercede for us.

God bless,
Fr. Peter Ciallella
