Parenting Tip

All children, especially young children, thrive when parents set boundaries and expectations. Knowing what is and is not acceptable, understanding the limits of what is tolerable and sensing their parents are in charge provides children with a sense of confidence and higher self-esteem. When parents take on a leadership role, their children are calmer and the family flourishes.

Happy Canada Day!

Dear Parishioners:

Today we celebrate Canada Day. Not only are we grateful for 151 years of Confederation, but we thank God for the blessings of this land and its rich resources, and for the peace and security that allow us to raise a family and form vibrant communities.

I am grateful that my parents made the wise decision to form a new life in Canada over 50 years ago so that my siblings and I could have opportunities that were not available at the time in their native Italy.

Yes there is so much to be grateful for on this Canada Day, but most of all we give thanks to God for the people who are part of the Canadian fabric of society. While we acknowledge the many positive aspects of our country, as loyal Canadians, we also aspire to better ourselves. We should not neglect those who do not necessarily share in the same benefits that must be afforded to all Canadians. Let us not forget the First peoples of this land, the Indigenous, who were not always treated humanely or with equal dignity. Let us be mindful of the vulnerable of our society who deserve our care and attention, such as the poor and children who live below the poverty line, new Canadians and refugees, the elderly, those struggling with health issues, the unborn and the dying who deserve decent palliative care.

Canada is not simply a country with borders and resources, but a nation with people, ideas, values and aspirations. May we be grateful for what we have and always aspire to “live by our better angels.”

Happy Canada Day and God bless you,

Fr. Peter Ciallella
