Participants register by email and once each day throughout the month of August they will receive an email with a reflection to think and pray about - providing spiritual and professional nourishment in the summer. Consider signing up!

FAMILY SYMPOSIUM

What supports do families need from the Church? What are the pressures they face in their day to day lives? What are the challenges, joys, highs and lows in families today? Where do they seek support when it is needed? Where do they see the role of the Church in their lives and in helping them cope with everyday life issues and events? The Diocese of Hamilton, through the Family Ministry Office, wants to hear from you on these topics. You can do this in two ways: 1) Attend our Symposium for Families being held on September 23rd, 2017 beginning with Bishop Crosby saying Mass at 9:30 and ending at 4 p.m. 2) Fill in the on-line survey posted on the diocesan website <http://hamiltondiocese.com/offices/family-ministry/symposium-on-family> commencing on June 28. The more people who engage in both these events the greater the knowledge we will gather. Family matters - help us discover how the Diocese can help you in the most important role of family. For more information call 905-528-7988 and ask for Teresa (ext. 2250) or Wendy (ext. 2241).

Dear Parishioners:

Last weekend we celebrated the 150th Anniversary of Canadian Confederation. As part of our commitment to our country we offered a prayer of consecration to the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary. But our work as citizens and people of faith continues. A new poll suggests more Canadians today (51 percent) believe religion does more harm than good, but even the pollsters disagree on what the numbers mean for the future of faith in the country.

Some analysts interpret the data as a reflection of Canadians' higher sensitivity to the news of religious radicals committing acts of violence and terrorism. Others point to a growing secularization of society. A noted sociologist who studies religious trends in Canadian society, Reginald Bibby, insists that Canadians are much more complex than what the data indicates.

For one thing, a fifty/fifty split means Canadians have been split on the value of religion for a number of years. Moreover in his own research Bibby found that 30 percent view religion as a central part of their lives, another 30 percent reject religion and another 40 percent are somewhere in the middle. For Bibby, the numbers can shift one way or the other depending on any number of social and cultural factors. However, there will always be a core group who value religion, especially since a growing number of new Canadians originate from nations that value religion.

When we read about such polls, we do not have to be disheartened. We can demonstrate to others how faith has made a positive impact in our lives and that indeed faith has a place and a vital role in the public square. Moving forward as a society, may our nation be mindful of the religious and spiritual values that have shaped and influenced us for the better.

God Bless,
Father Peter
