Marriage Tip: Expressing gratitude to those we love goes a long way to making them feel appreciated, but as Michele Weiner-Davis (The Divorce Busting Center) pointed out in her recent blog, negativity bias, which scientists refer to as a tendency to be more sensitive to negative stimuli, often causes relationship problems. This bias makes it easy for us to slip into the habit of remarking on anything that is wrong or negative, but forgetting to express the good we experience and feel. We can help overcome this natural bias by being purposeful in our interactions: express appreciation often, say thank you frequently and remember to tell your spouse what you love about your relationship. Doing a frequent check-up is a sure way to ensure you are more positive than negative, which will be reflected in the positive feelings in your marriage.

Happy Father’s Day

Dear Parishioners:

Today we honour all our fathers - those still with us and those who have passed on into the eternal kingdom.

This day reminds us of the unique role and blessings all fathers have upon society. God the Father has bestowed upon all fathers the special gift of participating in God’s loving plan of creation, of caring and nurturing their children, and together with their wives, being role models of faith and virtues.

Perhaps we all grow up seeing an ideal image of what a father should be, usually through the media, and the reality is that fathers come in different forms and with different personalities. But they all are characterized by the great love that they have for us.

On this Father’s Day we pray for all the dads of the Parish and we continue to pray and show our love for all our fathers, those still with us and those at peace in God’s heavenly kingdom.

God bless,
Fr. Peter Ciallella
