St. Joseph, Our Patron and Model of Holiness

Dear Parishioners:

On March 19 we celebrate the Solemnity of St. Joseph, Universal Patron of the Church and Principal Patron of Canada. It seems odd we celebrate his feast day right in the middle of the Lenten season. Odd because we often associate St. Joseph with the Christmas season, especially the role he played as husband of Mary, our Blessed Mother, and step father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Clearly St. Joseph played an important role in the early life of Jesus. By the time Jesus began his ministry he was no longer alive. Even though Lent directs our attention towards the end of Jesus's mission - his passion, death and resurrection - the feast day in honour of St. Joseph fits in well with our Lenten journey.

During Lent we are called to a conversion of heart and mind. St. Joseph totally altered his life to serve the Lord. Lent calls us to righteous living; St. Joseph was a righteous man with a compassionate and gentle heart. Throughout Lent we talk about sacrifice, and St. Joseph sacrificed everything - his reputation among his people, his livelihood and home - to take on the loving responsibility for a vulnerable young woman and her infant son. May we take the opportunity to celebrate his feast, thank God for the gift of our Patron and seek to follow the example of holiness he has given us.

God bless,

Fr. Peter Ciallella
