PARISH NEWS

New Lockdown Edict by Province: As of April 19, 2021 the Church and Office will be closed at least for the next month. Let us do what we can to flatten the curve again. In the meantime, Fr. Peter will continue to offer private Masses for your intentions and we will be livestreaming the Mass again every Sunday at 10:00 am. To access the Mass go to Blessed Sacrament Parish Hall Facebook page. We thank you for your patience, continuing support and cooperation.

First Holy Communion: Due to the new lockdown restrictions, we have already notified the parents that the celebration will take place at a later date. Once the Church can be opened at 15%, then we can plan accordingly. Thank you for your patience.

Please continue to give: Although we will not have our regular gatherings, we still need to pay the bills. Thank you to all those who continue to support the parishes through these challenging times. You can drop off your envelopes in the mailbox or mail a cheque to the Parish address. We can receive your donations through credit or debit card, an e-transfer or electronic bank transfer. We are also registered with CanadaHelps.org under Blessed Sacrament Roman Catholic Church (Burford, ON).

Migrant Farmworkers: As our migrant workers begin to arrive, please keep them in your prayers. We pray for their safety and wellbeing and are grateful to their employers who do all they can to create a safe work environment. Our outreach will continue throughout the season. Thank you for your continuing generosity.

Sick Calls: For the time being, only the Priest on call for a particular week can visit the sick in our local hospital. However, please let the office know if you or your loved one is sick. We will pray for them.

Anniversary Mass 2021 Registration: The Anniversary Mass scheduled for June of 2021 has been cancelled due to COVID-19 restrictions. St. Joseph the Worker

Dear Parishioners:

As we continue the Year of St. Joseph we contemplate a feast we celebrate on May 1, St. Joseph the Worker. To foster deep devotion to Saint Joseph among Catholics, and in response to the “May Day” celebrations for workers sponsored by Communists, Pope Pius XII instituted the feast of Saint Joseph the Worker in 1955. This feast extends the long relationship between Joseph and the cause of workers in both Catholic faith and devotion. Beginning in the Book of Genesis, the dignity of human work has long been celebrated as a participation in the creative work of God. By work, humankind both fulfills the command found in Genesis to care for the earth (Gn 2:15) and to be productive in their labors. Saint Joseph, the carpenter and foster father of Jesus, is but one example of the holiness of human labor.

Jesus, too, was a carpenter. He learned the trade from Saint Joseph and spent his early adult years working side-by-side in Joseph’s carpentry shop before leaving to pursue his ministry as preacher and healer. In his encyclical Laborem Exercens, Pope John Paul II stated: “the Church considers it her task always to call attention to the dignity and rights of those who work, to condemn situations in which that dignity and those rights are violated, and to help to guide [social] changes so as to ensure authentic progress by man and society.”

During these challenging times in which so many people are either unemployed or under employed, we pray that St. Joseph the Worker may intercede for us and help working families to endure the sacrifices they make every day.

God bless,

Fr. Peter Ciallella
