Today Salvation has come to this house

Dear Parishioners:

On this 31st Sunday of Ordinary Time we are presented with the story of Zacchaeus (Luke 19. 1-10). In today's Gospel, Jesus reached out to Zacchaeus, a wealthy tax collector who had climbed a tree to catch a glimpse of him. The Lord pronounced his name as an old friend would and spoke to him with tenderness. Jesus looked beyond his faults and errors and saw into his heart, just as he sees into ours.

When Jesus entered Zacchaeus' home and life, he demonstrated the boundless mercy of God. Zacchaeus' life was changed forever. He was no longer absorbed by money and saw the suffering of his neighbour. He responded generously to Jesus' call by resolving to change his ways, making restitution to those he had defrauded and sharing his possessions with the poor.

Jesus invites us to receive him as Zacchaeus did – joyfully. No matter how far we may have fallen, Jesus always offers us God's generous mercy and unconditional love. He looks beyond our mistakes and calls each of us by name. We too can be like Zacchaeus: respond to Jesus' call without hesitation and welcome him with humble, open heart.

God bless,
Fr. Peter Ciallella
