Lest we forget

Dear Parishioners:

On November 5 we will have an opportunity to honour our fallen veterans at the end of the 9:30 a.m. Mass. It is a small gesture of respect and remembrance, but one that could never repay the ultimate sacrifice paid by our heroic men and women. We owe them a debt of gratitude and deep admiration. The brunt of their sacrifices has also been borne by their families and loved ones. We owe them our gratitude and respect as well.

Our prayer today is also one for peace. We long for a world in which young men and women do not have to be called into duty, putting their lives in harm's way and fighting tyranny and terrorism. We long for a time described by the prophet Isaiah: "Nations will beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war anymore." (Isaiah 2:4). Let us remember, honour the dead and pray that their sacrifice will one day pave the way for lasting peace.

God bless,

Fr. Peter Ciallella

The month of November gives us the opportunity to remember those who have gone before us. This is a perfect time to focus on the reality that our time together is precious. Be with each other and rejoice in moments shared!
