PARISH NEWS

Mass of All Souls: We will have our Mass for all the faithful departed for the two parishes on Monday, November 2 at 9:00 am.

Book of Life: Beginning Nov. 1, All Saints Day, and continuing throughout the month of November, The Book of Life will be placed in the sanctuary. Due to the restrictions, please write the name(s) of your deceased loved ones on a piece of paper and leave it in the collection basket. We will add the names. Only write the names of those who are currently not included in the book. They will be remembered at Mass throughout the month of November.

Confirmation 2021: There will be a mandatory meeting for the students (Grade 7) and their parents who are preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. The meeting will take place in Church on Thursday, November 12 at 7:00 pm. Letters of invitation and registration forms have been sent out to our students from Blessed Sacrament School and St. Theresa. If your child does not attend either school, please contact the office or pick up a packet after Mass.

First Holy Communion 2021: There will be a mandatory meeting for all parents whose children (Grade 2) will be preparing to celebrate the Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. The meeting will take place in Church on Wednesday, November 25 at 7:00 pm. Letters of invitation and registration forms have been sent to our 2 Catholic Schools. If you have not received a letter with further instruction, please stop by the office or pick up a packet after Mass.

New Sunday Missals for 2021: Are available at the back of the Church for $5.00; Youth Missals - $10.00.

Thank you Marjorie Brimo: After 10 years of serving the Parish as our Volunteer Coordinator and bulletin editor, Marjorie will be stepping down. We thank her for invaluable contribution to the parish. She will continue to serve the parish as a volunteer. We wish her many blessings!

Queen of all Saints

Pray for us!

Feast of All Saints

Dear Parishioners:

This weekend we celebrate the feast of All the Saints. We give thanks for the witness and companionship of those we call saints. The communion of saints includes, in the broadest sense, not only those formally recognized by the Church but also the exemplary people of faith whom we encounter in our communities and our families. The saints – both those who have gone before us and those who walk among us still – are icons of holiness which we glimpse in the face of God.

All of us are called to holiness, to a life shaped by gospel values. Today’s reading of the Beatitudes offers us some guidelines. Bombarded by the lures of consumerism, we are called to be poor in spirit. In a world beset by war, violence and racism, we are called to be peacemakers. In a society that prioritizes competitiveness and ruthless individuality, we are called to be humble. Where grief and discouragement prevail, we are called to be merciful. In the face of injustice, we are invited to “hunger and thirst for righteousness.”

Today we pray for the grace to recognize that we are all called to be saints. In the words of the psalm, may we live with “clean hands and pure hearts,” as we look forward in hope to sharing in the light of eternal light.

God bless,

Fr. Peter Ciallella
