*Queen of All Saints,
Pray for us!*

Dear Parishioners:

Today we come to the end of our Liturgical Year. Yes, next week we will begin the Season of Advent and our four weeks of preparation for Christmas!

But before we get ahead of ourselves, we take the time to recognize that there is only one King who can bring all things to fulfillment, Christ our King. He will rescue His sheep from all places where they have been scattered: by disease, starvation, war and oppressive authority. Those baptized into the life and death of Christ are called to share kingship with Christ, the Good Shepherd who seeks and rescues the lost sheep.

We are also called to be accountable and to know that at the end time we will all stand in judgment. The Gospel reminds us of Jesus’ mission: “For this reason I was born, and for this I came, to testify to the truth.” May the words of the Gospel inspire us to make a stronger commitment to respond with care and compassion to those around us as we look forward to the time when the Lord will call us home.

On a final note, please keep in mind the different activities and opportunities for Reconciliation during the season of Advent.

Fr. Peter Ciallella
