Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception

Pray for us!

Making Room for Christ

Dear Parishioners:

Throughout the Advent season the readings will encourage us to focus on what is really important leading up to the weeks prior to Christmas. For example, in today's liturgy both Isaiah and the Gospel of Mark remind us that this season of Advent is about being vigilant and preparing the way for the Lord. It's about clearing some space, making room for Jesus and welcoming him into our lives in an ever deeper way.

For some of us, that might mean committing more time for prayer each day, even in the midst of the busyness of this month and the worries of the pandemic. Perhaps for others it means giving the gift of presence to someone who is lonely and homebound in this festive season. And still for others this is an opportunity to take advantage of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, even if it has been a few years since one's last confession.

This month we will have an opportunity to turn to the one who best teaches how to prepare for Christmas, our Blessed Mother. On December 8 we will celebrate a special Solemn Mass of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary and on December 12, Our Lady of Guadalupe.

As we continue our Advent journey, let us heed the voice and example of the prophets and of our Blessed Mother.

God bless,

Fr. Peter Ciallella
