PARISH NEWS

Annual Chicken BBQ: Thank you to all who helped to contribute to the success of this year's event. A special thank you to the volunteers who helped in the preparation and service of the meals. A big thank you to those who placed their orders. Over 700 meals were ordered this year.

First Communion Celebrations: We continue to celebrate First Communion for the children who are receiving the Sacrament this year. We ask that the children and family be at Church at least 15 minutes prior to the celebration. We can allow up to 9 invited guests per child.

Confirmation: We have finally received permission to re-schedule the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation that was supposed to take place back in April. The new date is Thursday, October 15, 2020 at 7:00 pm. Parents and Candidates have been notified.

Diocesan News: After consultation with the Priests in the Brant Deanery, our Pastor, Fr. Peter, was recently appointed by Bishop Crosby to serve 3 years on the Presbyteral Council. The Council advises the Bishop on pastoral and administrative matters of the Diocese.

Adult Faith Formation: If any adult is interested in becoming Catholic or any baptized Catholic would like to complete his/her initiation by receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation, please contact Fr. Peter through the Parish Office. Also, if any parishioner is interested in helping Fr. Peter with the program, please contact him.

Newly Baptized: We welcome the newest members of our Catholic Family: Brooklyn Hope Dwyer (parents Christopher and Bailey), Lincoln William Dwyer (parents Michael and Jacquelyn) and Levi Robert Kerr (parents Lucas and Katie). We pray that they will continue to grow in their faith with the guidance and love of their parents and godparents.

Parent Tip: During the pandemic, children are not immune to the impact of the pandemic. Aside from following the advice of our health experts, pray together as a family – pray for the sick and the dying and pray that we may defeat this virus soon. Praying together can help alleviate the anxieties we must endure every day.

Brothers and Sisters, All

Dear Parishioners:

This weekend at the tomb of the great St. Francis of Assisi in the Basilica Church in Assisi (Italy), Pope Francis will formally sign a new papal encyclical on human fraternity. His first encyclical was Lumen fidei “The Light of Faith” (2013), the second, Laudato si “Our care for the common home” and now the third under the Italian title of Fratelli tutti. A papal encyclical is a formal communication of the Pope concerning some important aspects of the Christian faith. In the past, the encyclicals were largely addressed to bishops and priests, but in modern times, the message is addressed to all the faithful – and in some cases for all of humanity, like Pacem in terris, “Peace on earth” (1963) and the last one on care for the earth.

The title of the newest encyclical comes from St. Francis of Assisi’s thirteenth century hymn, Canticle of the Sun. The inspiration of the theme and title of the encyclical and the place where it is formally signed are consistent with Pope Francis’ papacy from the beginning. Since taking the name Francis, our Holy Father has tried to implement the saint’s legacy, such as concern for the poor and the environment and interreligious dialogue.

The encyclical focuses on the theme of human fraternity and the importance of recognizing each other as brothers and sisters who form a part of the same global family. The theme takes on particular relevance given the dramatic situation in the world today in which the coronavirus pandemic is causing great suffering to millions of people in more than 188 countries and territories. Now more than ever, all of humanity must recognize that the wellbeing of each person and our planet is a moral imperative that cannot be ignored. When one part of the body suffers, the entire person suffers. When one part of our world suffers, we all suffer.

Pope Francis challenges all, including our leaders, to be bold in developing a new economy and a new form of politics that moves beyond the model of the haves and the have-nots. This call for a new social order is based on the gospel values of sharing, generosity and charity.

Like many great encyclicals of the past, this one will take years and perhaps decades for the rest of the world to catch up to Pope Francis’ bold vision. He is not proposing a quick-fix to the ills of society, but a fundamental shift in our thinking and vision. We must move away from the selfish thinking of “what’s in this for me” to how will this benefit my brothers and sisters.
