PARISH NEWS

Church Capacity: As of July 15, the Province has entered Step 3. We are now allowed 30% capacity in church. That means approximately 100 people for Blessed Sacrament and 60 people for St. Anthony Daniel. Those who wish to receive Communion on the tongue now can. Receive at the end of the line. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

First Holy Communion: Has been rescheduled to Saturday, October 2 at 11:00 am (children from Blessed Sacrament School) and 1:00 pm (children from St. Theresa and other schools). We will have our rehearsal with the children and parents on Saturday, September 25 at 9:30 am. Given the restriction in terms of capacity, we will allow up to 7 family members per child for the celebration. A letter with more details was emailed to parents last week. Please pray for the children and their families.

Chicken BBQ: We will be having our annual Chicken BBQ on Sunday, September 26 from 4-6 pm. Due to the restrictions set out by the Health Unit, we will only be offering TAKE-OUT again this year. Please call/text 519-802-6121 by September 18th to place your order. You may also send an email with your order to: bsheventbookings@gmail.com. Dinner includes parsley potatoes, coleslaw, vegetable, bun and cookies. Adults (1/2 chicken) $ 20.00, children under 8, $ 9.00. We will also need volunteers for preparing the dinner (Friday & Saturday) and clean-up after (Sunday). Highschool students are welcome! We encourage everyone to place orders early as we were all sold out last year! Please support this important fundraiser and spread the word!

A new schedule for Lectors/Readers: is available at the back of the church.

Sick Calls: For the time being, only the Priest on call for a particular week can visit the sick in our local hospital. However, please let the office know if you or your loved one is sick. We will pray for them.

Back to School: We pray for the safety of the children and staff who have returned to school last week. Let us pray that our Blessed Mother may intercede for the health and safety of all.

*The Exaltation of the Holy Cross
September 14th*

The Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross celebrates two historical events: the discovery of the True Cross by Saint Helena, the mother of the Emperor Constantine, in 320 under the temple of Venus in Jerusalem, and the dedication in 335 of the basilica and shrine built on Calvary by Constantine, which mark the site of the Crucifixion. The basilica, named the Martyrium, and the shrine, named the Calvarium, were destroyed by the Persians in 614. The Church of the Holy Sepulcher which now stands on the site was built by the crusaders in 1149. But the meaning of the cross is deeper. The cross is a sign of suffering, a sign of human cruelty at its worst. But by Christ’s love shown in the Paschal Mystery, it has become the sign of triumph and victory, the sign of God, who is love itself.

Believers have always looked to the cross in times of suffering. People in concentration camps, in prisons, in hospitals, in any place of suffering and loneliness, have been known to draw, trace, or form crosses and focus their eyes and hearts on them. The cross does not explain pain and misery. It does not give us any easy answers. But it does help us to see our lives united with Christ’s.

We often make the Sign of the Cross over ourselves. We make it before prayer to help fix our minds and hearts on God. We make it after prayer, hoping to stay close to God. In trials and temptations, the cross is a sign of strength and protection. The cross is the sign of the fullness of life that is ours. At Baptism, too, the Sign of the Cross is used; the priest, parents, and godparents make the sign on the forehead of the child. A sign made on the forehead is a sign of belonging. By the Sign of the Cross in Baptism, Jesus takes us as his own in a unique way. Today, let us look to the cross often. Let us make the Sign of the Cross and realize we bring our whole selves to God—our minds, souls, bodies, wills, thoughts, hearts—everything we are and will become.

*O Cross, you are the glorious sign of our victory.
Through your power may we share in the triumph of Christ Jesus. (Prayer of Christians)*
