Word from the Pastor

From today's Gospel reading: Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit"; and when he had said this he breathed his last.

Luke's Passion narrative reveals how much Jesus has lost - his followers and friends have abandoned or betrayed him; his life's project has collapsed into humiliation and defeat. Luke is inviting anyone of us who have similar losses to identify with Jesus. He is no stranger to our pain and joins us as we wait for new life to come where we have experienced death. Among the losses we have experienced in our lives, which was the most painful? Did we have any experience of Jesus' presence with us during that period of pain?

Pope Francis met with indigenous communities in Rome this week and asked forgiveness of God and joined with brother Canadian bishops in apologizing for the trauma of residential schools and survivors.

Please note during my retreat days the daily Masses are cancelled from Monday, April 18 to Friday, April 22.

Eucharistic Ministers are reminded to distribute Holy Communion in the hand only.

Blessing of Easter Food. It is a custom in some countries to bless the foods of Easter. If you wish to have food blessed, please bring it to the church on Holy Saturday, Apr16 at 11am. Please call the Office if you wish to participate.

Become a blessing to others. A legacy of faith remains for all as you choose to remember Holy Spirit Parish in your will. For more information contact the Parish Office.

Take Five for Faith: Daily renewal for busy Catholics

Revealing companions Today the church follows Luke's narrative of the Passion, where participants are revealed by the company they keep—or avoid. Most of Jesus' followers flee his side, fearing to share their teacher's fate. Meanwhile, the Roman governor Pilate makes a strange alliance with local puppet-king Herod, a man he despises. Both agree on one thing: Holding onto power is their highest priority. Then Simon, a Jew from the African dispersion, finds himself forced to carry Jesus' cross: something the disciples were terrified of doing. Tradition holds this Cyrenian and his family later joined the early church. Whose company are we keeping?

"As they led him away they took hold of a certain Simon, a Cyrenian . . . laying the cross on him."
