Word from the Pastor

From today's Gospel reading St. Mark 6: Jesus said to his disciples, "Go on your way..., Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals, and greet no one along the way. Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.'"

Disciples have important work to do and we must get about our task. We are to be bearers of peace in a tumultuous, peace-starved world; people who announce God's presence and concern to those who feel cut off from God and on their own. Our message, by our words and actions is, "The kingdom of God is at hand." To whom am I being sent to bring Jesus' peace-greeting? What do I have to let go of – attitude, hesitations, fears, anxieties – so I can mirror the peace?

Become a blessing to others. A legacy of faith remains for all as you choose to remember Holy Spirit Parish in your will. For more information contact the Parish Office.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

July 3 – For an increase in laborers to the Lord of the Harvest in response to our prayers for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and the consecrated life, and for the holiness of all those now serving the people of our diocese in these vocations, we pray to the Lord.

July 10 – That all those now discerning their vocation will be attentive in prayer and active in their response to Jesus the Eternal Word who calls them, we pray to the Lord.

July 17 – That like Mary of Bethany, all priests, deacons and brothers and sisters will listen to the Lord in prayer, faithful to their choice of vocation, we pray to the Lord.

July 24 – That the Holy Spirit will give inspiration and guidance to all those discerning their vocation in Christ, we pray to the Lord.

Take Five for Faith: Daily renewal for busy Catholics

Branch out Chances are you're spending some time outside this summer, enjoying the glories of nature. One ancient tree worth noting is the cedar, which has deep spiritual roots in Hebrew and Christian tradition. The height and breadth of the mighty cedar of Lebanon are associated with the greatness of God. It is long-lived, evergreen, fruit-bearing, and a place of refuge—all characteristics of Yahweh and Mary, in her role as Mother of God and protectress of the church. The next time you feel vulnerable or distant from God, call to mind the grand cedar and know that divine comfort awaits if only you seek its reach.

"He shall strike root like the Lebanon cedar, and put forth his shoots."

In this great fiat of the little girl Mary, the strength and foundation of our life of contemplation is grounded, for it means absolute trust in God, trust which will not set us free from suffering but will set us free from anxiety, hesitation, and above all from the fear of suffering. ~ Caryll Houselander from her book The Reed of God

The Most Rev. Pierre-Olivier Tremblay Appointed Bishop of Hearst-Moosonee On Jun 24, His Holiness Pope Francis appointed The Most Rev. Pierre-Olivier Tremblay, O.M.I., as the new Bishop of the Diocese of Hearst-Moosonee, transferring him from his current pastoral duty as Auxiliary Bishop of Trois-Rivières. The Diocese of Hearst-Moosonee has 30 priests (diocesan and religious), 25 parishes, and a Catholic population of 25,000. He replaces Archbishop Terrence Prendergast, SJ who was Apostolic Administrator.

Litany of Trust

From the fear that trusting You will leave me more destitute...
Deliver me, Jesus.

From all suspicion of Your words and promises... Deliver me, Jesus.

From the rebellion against childlike dependency on You...
Deliver me, Jesus.

Catholic Bishops Welcome Announcement of Program for Papal Visit to Canada: July 24 – 29, 2022

Canada's Catholic Bishops welcome today's announcement from the Holy See providing further details of the itinerary of Pope Francis' historic visit to Canada, July 24 – 29, 2022. This will be the fourth papal visit to Canada and the first since Saint John Paul II's journey in 2002. The Holy Father's pilgrimage will focus on Indigenous healing and reconciliation while also providing the shepherd of the world's 1.2 billion Catholics an opportunity to encounter the faithful in Canada. Due to his advanced age and limitations, it is expected that participation by Pope Francis at public events will be limited to approximately one hour. General Co-ordinator of the Papal Visit to Canada, Archbishop Richard Smith, remarked on the release of the program: "We know that the Holy Father was deeply moved by his encounter with Indigenous Peoples in Rome earlier this year, and that he hopes to build on the important dialogue that took place. We pray this pilgrimage will serve as another meaningful step in the long journey of healing, reconciliation and hope." The visit, drawing on the theme of "Walking Together", will include a combination of public and private events, with an emphasis on Indigenous participation throughout the visit. Ticketing (free) for public events will be announced in the coming days. A volunteer portal can be accessed at papalvisit.ca or visitepapale.ca for those wishing to share their time and talents as part of the historic visit. The papal visit planning team will work closely with Indigenous partners as well as federal, provincial and municipal levels of government to dialogue and co-ordinate the significant logistical challenges associated with a visit of this scope and magnitude. Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops President, Bishop Raymond Poisson, commented on the efforts: "So many people are working diligently to organize this very busy schedule for the Holy Father and participants. We pray for the health of Pope Francis and also that his pastoral visit to Canada will bring reconciliation and hope to all those who will accompany our shepherd on this historic journey."
