Word from the Pastor

The Body and Blood of Jesus. In the Eucharistic bread and wine today we are receiving the One who invites us to come close and receive a healing. We are also receiving the One who asks his disciples, "Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?" Our response may be puzzlement and confusion as we look at the enormity of the problem. But the Eucharist can heal us and open our eyes and minds to how we can feed the hungry and where they can be found in our immediate environment. There is a healing for us too in this story, as our eyes are opened, and this healing comes by way of the food Jesus provides. Here are some other messages we might hear from the Gospel today that are connected to the feast and Eucharist: -- note Jesus' hospitality; so should we be at our celebrations -- he says a blessing; are we aware of the blessing that food is and the gift we enjoy when we eat? Do we treat food as something precious? -- Note how simple meals can satisfy in a community, and how all eat the same food and are nourished. -- God has more than enough (they had "leftovers") to satisfy our hungers at this meal. -- What kind of examples are we setting for our children in regard to simple life styles, care for others, frugality, etc.? -- "...they followed his instructions".....the hungry must be fed, we have his instructions.

The prayer of absolution and forgiveness of sins in the Sacrament of Reconciliation is changing and will now read:
*God, the Father of mercies,
 through the death and resurrection of his Son
 has reconciled the world to himself and poured out the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins;
 through the ministry of the Church may God grant you
 pardon and peace,
 and I absolve you from your sins
 in the name of the Father, and of the Son,
 and of the Holy Spirit.*

Become a blessing to others. A legacy of faith remains for all as you choose to remember Holy Spirit Parish in your will. For more information contact the Parish Office.

Take Five for Faith: Daily renewal for busy Catholics
The purpose of power We can use power to help others—or to help ourselves. Jesus chooses to feed the multitude and invites his followers to do the same. Lord John Acton (1834-1902), an English Catholic historian, counseled caution with our authority: "Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely." Acton also noted, "Liberty is not the power of doing what we like, but the right to do what we ought" and "The will of the people cannot make just that which is unjust." This Father's Day, pray for fathers and others to act wisely and lovingly when exercising their authority.

"[Jesus] said to them, 'Give them some food yourselves.' "
