PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

That men and women called to proclaim the kingdom of God as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life, will be given the strength to overcome every obstacle to their response through prayer and the practice of virtue, we pray to the Lord.

The will of God has a concrete place and form in this world: it has a body. In his Church, Christ remained a body. And hence obedience to God's will is inseparable from obedience to the Church. ~ Joseph Ratzinger (Benedict XVI), from his book On Love

Word from the Pastor

And another said, "I will follow you Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." Luke 9.51

But Jesus answered, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

Following Jesus is not a part-time endeavor. If what Jesus says to the potential disciples in today's gospel unsettles us--so be it. Let's sit with his words for a while and reflect on where we are at this stage of our journey with him. What must we leave behind, what re-ordering must we do to respond again to a word from Jesus that's full of promise, "Follow me"? What daily response am I making to Jesus' invitation, "Follow me"? What do I need to put aside to make that a fuller response?

Become a blessing to others. A legacy of faith remains for all as you choose to remember Holy Spirit Parish in your will. For more information contact the Parish Office.

The only measure that matters When you were a kid, did your parents measure you by marking your height on a wall each birthday? Perhaps later report cards and sports trophies were a measure of your progress. In adulthood, do you measure yourself by rungs you've climbed on a corporate ladder, or by the increasing figures in your bank account? Some measures are less quantifiable—and far more important. Are you becoming more forgiving, more patient, more giving, more humble, more faithful? Are you getting closer to God? Comparison to others is no measure at all when God knows your heart completely and is helping you grow.

"The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."
