Word from the Pastor

The feeding of the 5000 in St. Luke 9:11-17. At a recent faith gathering a group of people got to sharing the enormity of the problems we encounter in our world. Like the disciples in today's story, they felt overwhelmed by them, their efforts dwarfed by the enormity of people's needs. A Baptist minister among them said, "Well the cloth of the injustices and needs of the world is very, very large. So, what I do is work on the corner of the cloth that is nearest to me." That might be the response Jesus is asking from us when we, like the disciples, say to him, "Where will we get enough to feed them?" – "Just work on the corner of the cloth that is nearest to you." He will take our efforts, raise his eyes to heaven, say the blessing, bless them, break them and give them back to us to "place before those present."

The Knights of Columbus have made a generous contribution to our Youth Ministry. We thank the Council for supporting our parish activities and programs.

Operation Baby Bottle has now ended. Please return your filled bottles to the parish office.

This is a story about the amazing St. Anthony of Padua!

June 13 is the feast of the miraculous St. Anthony of Padua, patron saint of lost items, the poor, and travelers. The Catholic Church attributes many miracles to this 13-century saint, one of which proved the presence of the Eucharist to a heretic.

During one debate, a man named Bononillo challenged St. Anthony's belief of the Eucharistic presence. He said, "If you can make my mule bow down before what you call the Body of Christ, I will believe." St. Anthony tried to convince him in other ways, but did not see any other option.

Bononillo decided to then starve his mule for three days.

On the third day, St. Anthony celebrated Mass in the city's public square. After Mass, Bononillo went before St. Anthony, and offered his mule food, while St. Anthony carried a consecrated host. St. Anthony said, "Mule! Come here and show reverence to your Creator!"

St. Anthony held up the Eucharistic host, and rather than accepting Bononillo's food, the starved mule bowed down and knelt before the Eucharist.

Once Bononillo saw this, he also bowed and knelt before the Eucharist. Many other heretics converted that day.
