Word from the Pastor

Today we celebrate the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. They were going to call the child Zechariah, after his father, but his mother said in reply, "No. He will be called John." Reflection: Biblical names have significance and help us interpret what is happening. John means, "God is gracious." Elizabeth means, "oath of God" - God is fulfilling the promises God made of old. Zechariah means, "Lord remembers" - Israel is in a low point of its history, but God has not forgotten her. So we ask ourselves: What ways do I experience a "gracious God" in my community of faith and in my life in the world? What "promise" do I hear from these scriptures? Do I trust that God will "remember" me and not leave me to face anything on my own?

The Knights of Columbus Prayer Group has been meeting on a regular basis in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for the last few months. In the fall it will be open to all men of the Parish. Info. Henry Kinsella 613-854-0575.
