YOUTH MINISTRY

There are things that restrain us in life and things that give us freedom. The world says, power, money and lavish relationships give us freedom but through the Evangelical Counsels, the Church shows a different side. This Friday, May 26th the Harvest Youth Group meets from 6:30 to 8:30 pm for an evening of fellowship, snacks, games and a look at why we see poverty, obedience and chastity as the more powerful alternative.

PASTORAL CARE

Do you know anyone who cannot come to church but would like to receive Holy Communion? Please call the parish office 613-836-8881 and we will arrange for a member of the team to pay a visit and bring Holy Communion.

DAILY CATHOLIC WISDOM

Why does the testimony of the saints matter? Because the saints are the "serious players" in the spiritual life. The saints got the business of holiness done. The saints especially excelled in uniting their hearts to the Heart of Jesus, which should be our business as well.

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities – to one another, to our families, and to the larger society.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The Knights of Columbus will be holding an information display and Q&A during the upcoming hospitality which is being held in the Church Hall after each Mass on Saturday June 1st, and Sunday June 2nd. Please join us for hospitality as well as a chance to find out what it means to be a Knight. We are looking for heroes to help serve our Community and Parish. Just 2 hours a month if you wish.....so please come and find out more!

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Sixth Sunday of Easter - May 26. That the Holy Spirit will guide and comfort men and women discerning their vocations, we pray to the Lord.

Word from the Pastor

Revelation reading: 'Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. Revelation is the assurance that, despite the apparent victories of evil in our world, God is sovereign and just and will overcome evil in the end and reward the just who have persevered and lived faithful lives. Revelation speaks to those who look to God for a comfort that only God can give. It is a prophetic book urging us to hear the Word of God and stay faithful to the covenant God has made with us in Christ. If someone were to ask you, "Which do you think is winning in the world, good or evil?" What would you answer? What hope does the reading from Revelation stir in you?

A statue of Our Lady of Fatima is in the Atrium. Our thanks to Jacinta for lending this beautiful statue to us for the month of May.

Operation Baby Bottle launched last week. Please pick up a bottle to fill between now and Father's Day if you haven't already taken one. Quantities are limited.

Mother Teresa's Anyway Poem

People are often unreasonable, illogical and self centered; Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; Be kind anyway.

If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies; Succeed anyway.

If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you; Be honest and frank anyway.

What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; Build anyway.

If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous; Be happy anyway.

The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow; Do good anyway.

Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; Give the world the best you've got anyway.

You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and your God; It was never between you and them anyway.

[Reportedly inscribed on the wall of Mother Teresa's children's home in Calcutta, and attributed to her.]
