PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

The Ascension of the Lord - June 2. That Christ, from his seat in heaven, will bless and guide all those called to serve Him as priests, deacons, sisters and brothers, we pray to the Lord.

Word from the Pastor

From today's Book of Revelation reading: The angel took me in spirit to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God. Revelation keeps our feet firmly rooted in our present struggles to live the Christian life; but it also focuses our eyes on what is to come. The world's indomitable powers, despite present appearances, will be overcome. In the meanwhile, John is inviting us to turn away from the false values and powers of the world and focus on the vision of the new Holy City where we will dwell with God and one another. How does our hope in a permanent future with God affect our lives now? What signs do I see that strengthen my hope in the power of good over evil?

Operation Baby Bottle is underway. Please pick up a bottle to fill between now and Father's Day if you haven't already taken one. We only have a few left.

Gardening season: We would welcome assistance to beautify our Church. To assist, please call the Office.

Holy Spirit Parish is looking for an experienced Sacramental Coordinator/Youth Minister, full time for Holy Spirit Parish. Please send resume and three references to: pastor@holyspiritparish.ca

Apostolic Letter "Vos estis lux mundi" Issued by Pope Francis: This document clarifies issues with regard to reporting allegations of abuse procedures and accountability within the Church, and it demonstrates Pope Francis' commitment to amend the Code of Canon Law with the inclusion of serious measures to protect the most vulnerable from sexual abuse. The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops welcomes these new norms as the Church's response "to prevent and combat these crimes that betray the trust of the faithful". The CCCB will study the new norms and take the necessary steps to ensure that Bishops are properly informed so that they may implement them in their dioceses/eparchies in a manner which complements and enhances the 2018 CCCB Guidelines.

The best way to heal a broken heart is to give God all the pieces.

In all truth

When we live day after day with people who are severely handicapped, our own limits and darkness become so obvious. But this experience helped me understand that we cannot grow in love and compassion unless, in all truth, we recognize who we are and accept our own radical poverty. The poor person is not just in others, but also within us. That truth is the basis of all human and spiritual growth and the foundation of our Christian life. "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:3). The poor who reveal our poverty to us, thus become a sacrament.
