Word from the Pastor

St. Matthew 25: Jesus said to his disciples, "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Our daily routine can be shattered by the unexpected and sudden demands life puts on us and our loved ones. Will we be ready to respond? It depends on how well we have tended to our 'oil' supply. What helps me 'stay awake' and alert to God's entrance into my daily life? Is there a practice of prayer, or reflection, I can adopt to help me better respond to Christ each day?

Please remember to bring new winter clothing for those in need.

Please remember to bow to one another at the sign of peace, to receive Communion in the hand only for the safety of all parishioners. The Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion have been advised of the procedure.

Thank you to Finance Council update at the Eucharist last weekend and for your generous support of the Parish.

The Synod on Synodality has concluded its first year of listening and now reflects in faith what has been learned until the next sessions begin in October 2024. So, where do we go from here? It's like Thomas' question in John 14! 'Lord we don't know where you are going, how can we know the way'? We don't have a roadmap or blueprint to guide us. It's an open-ended process meant to involve all the Church. Ever relying on the wisdom of the Holy Spirit, the Church seeks clarity and vision as we move forward in prayer and discernment in our faith.

You can remember family and loved ones by offering a Mass for their intention in this month of the souls. Please contact the office.

Become a blessing to others. A legacy of faith remains for all as you choose to remember Holy Spirit Parish in your will. For more information contact the Parish Office.

Monsignor Joseph Muldoon

A Memorial Book has been placed in the Atrium. In this book, all parishioners are invited to inscribe the names of their family, relatives and friends who have died and who they wish to have remembered in the prayers that will be said for them during the month of November.
