SEASON OF ADVENT Advent has a twofold nature: It prepares us for Christmas, when we recall Christ's first coming among us, and it is also a time when we look forward to his second coming at the end of the ages. Advent is a season of joyful expectation.

Word from the Pastor

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God..." Above Jesus there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews."

Jesus, the king, is showing us a power from the cross in contrast to what the world reckons as power and rule. His power is not exerted by force over us, but by inviting us to become one with him. He is offering himself to us in a relationship that is strong, even when it appears weak. Can you name two or three powers that lay claim to the hearts of people in the world? What powers compete with Jesus' rule within our church? Within ourselves?

Make it a habit to do nice things for people who will never find out!

The use of masks is being advised by health authorities, but at this time it is not mandated. We will keep you posted.

It's time to begin bringing new winter clothing such as: socks, shirts, gloves, scarves, mitts etc., and women's and men's toiletries for those in need to the blue bin in the atrium beside the Food items.

A Memorial Book has been placed in the Atrium. In this book, all parishioners are invited to inscribe the names of their family, relatives and friends who have died and who they wish to have remembered in the prayers that will be said for them during the month of November.

Monsignor Joseph Muldoon

Take Five for Faith: Daily renewal for busy Catholics
Suffer the little children to enter paradise Jesus promises Paradise to a man dying in disgrace next to him on the cross. Today, on World Youth Day, we can bring Paradise a little closer by contemplating 10 principles the United Nations calls the "Rights of the Child," including: Every child without exception should have a name and nationality; access to physical, mental, moral, spiritual, and social development; food, housing, and medical care; love and understanding; education and moral guidance; protection from exploitation and discrimination. Our Catholic preferential option for the poor and respect for life fully embraces the welfare of children.

"Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

A Christ-Centered, Co-Journey Towards Healing is the Archdiocese of Ottawa-Cornwall's initiative to raise funds and to enhance the relationship between the Archdiocese and Indigenous Peoples living on the territories it serves. The funds will be used for projects that directly have a positive impact on the Indigenous Peoples of Ottawa-Cornwall. We hope that you will join in by donating during the special collection.
