PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

November 24. That Christ the King, who brought peace through death on the cross, will choose many men and women to preach redemption as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life.

Word from the Pastor

From today's reading from the Prophet Malachi: Lo, the day is coming, blazing like an oven, when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble.... But for you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays.

While evil doers may prosper for a while, the faithful are strengthened by Malachi's vision of God's coming justice. With hope in that vision we do not give in to the despair and pessimism that might cause us to give up on ourselves, our world, and even our incomplete and wounded church. We especially do not give up on God. What gets us most discouraged about our world today? About our own lives? What subtle signs of hope give us courage and the desire to persevere?

Today is World Day of the Poor, named by Pope Francis in 2016 at the end of the Jubilee Year of Mercy. It calls us to reach out in solidarity to those most in need.

Monsignor Joseph Muldoon
