Word from the Pastor

Heaven and earth will pass away but my words will not pass away. Our faith invites us to trust that, even amid complete upheaval, God has not abandoned us. "The tribulation" Jesus predicts for his disciples is about to take place for him. When their world collapses with Jesus' death, will they remember and cling to his words and look forward to an entirely new Spring? The same can be asked of us. As we face our own tribulations can we trust that Jesus' words will not fail us and that he will be faithful to us?

How can I be a symbol of Jesus' steadfastness to others in their trials?

For the beginning of Advent Archbishop Prendergast, SJ has asked us to pray the Prayer to St. Michael at the end of the Liturgy.

Monsignor Joseph Muldoon

KEY PRINCIPLES OF CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

Community and the Common Good

In a global culture driven by excessive individualism, our tradition proclaims that the person is not only sacred but also social. How we organize our society – in economics and politics, in law and policy – directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community. Our Church teaches that the role of the government and other institutions is to protect human life and human dignity and promote the common good.

HELP NEEDED WITH OUR EUCHARISTIC MINISTRY

Extra Ordinary Ministers of the Eucharistic help distribute the grace and blessings of Holy Communion to others? Commitment of one or two masses per month, training provided.

For more information please contact the parish office or Randy Ali at rsali@sympatico.ca

THE DEVIL IS REAL AND WE SHOULD BE ON GUARD

"We should not think of the devil as a myth, a representation, a symbol, a figure of speech or an idea. This mistake would lead us to let down our guard, to grow careless and end up more vulnerable. The devil does not need to possess us. He poisons us with the venom of hatred, desolation, envy and vice.

When we let down our guard, he takes advantage of it to destroy our lives, our families and our communities. 'Like a roaring lion, he prowls around, looking for someone to devour' (1 Pet 5:8)." (GE 161)

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our defense against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
