Word from the Pastor

Today is the Solemnity of Christ the King.

We read in St. John's Gospel: Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?"...Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world." Jesus' kingdom, his world, is with us now. We have, through our baptism and the gift of the Spirit, been given the vision to see the presence of the kingdom and its life-giving possibilities. It is a world of community, equality, respect and dialogue. In the kingdom, under Jesus' rule, each person's gifts are recognized. The poor and neglected are empowered and no one is left out. Justice is given to each, regardless of their political influence, race, gender or economic status. Who or what set of values rule my life and guide my daily decisions? What can I do to respond more fully to Jesus' rule in my life?

Advent begins next week. Advent has twofold nature: It prepares us for Christmas, when we recall Christ's first coming among us, and it is also a time when we look forward to his second coming at the end of the ages. Advent is a season of joyful expectation. During Advent, each Sunday's Gospel reading has a specific focus. The Old Testament readings, especially those taken from Isaiah, are prophecies about the Messiah and messianic times. The selections from the writings of the Apostles present exhortations and instructions on different themes of the season.

Many thanks to all for your weekly generosity to the Parish. The Finance Council will give an update to the Parish on Dec.1-2 at the Masses.

Monsignor Joseph Muldoon
