Word from the Pastor

Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, saying..., "Whoever exalts self will be humbled, but whoever humbles self will be exalted."

Whatever the form our ministry and leadership in the Christian community takes, we carry within us and repeat frequently, the mantra of service Jesus has given us: "Whoever exalts self will be humbled, but whoever humbles self will be exalted." How do I serve others as a disciple of Jesus? What teaching of Jesus guides my service?

The Parish has received a bequest from the Estate of †Leonard Radburn, a long-time parishioner. Please consider remembering 'Holy Spirit Parish' in your last will and testament as a sign of your faith commitment to the Parish. You may contact the Office for details. Thanks for your ongoing support of the Community.

On October 28 - 29 the youth were enrolled in preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation. They received a wooden cross and signed a commitment scroll as a reminder of their willingness to mature in the life of the Holy Spirit. Please remember them in your daily prayers.

John Orban is on his Canonical Retreat at Madonna House, Combermere in preparation for his ordination to the transitional diaconate. Archbishop Terrence Prendergast, SJ will confer the ministry of deacon on John on Saturday November 11 at 5:00 pm. A reception hosted by the Knights of Columbus will follow and all are welcome to celebrate this special occasion in the life of our Diocesan Church of Ottawa.

Welcome to new parishioners and all who have recently registered. You are invited to participate in one of the ministries and to support the Parish through the weekly envelope or by the auto debit system. Thank you for your contribution to the strengthening of the Parish.

Monsignor Joseph Muldoon

WHY DOES THE CHURCH TEACH ABOUT ISSUES AFFECTING PUBLIC POLICY?

The Church's obligation to participate in shaping the moral character of society is a requirement of our faith. It is a basic part of the mission we have received from Jesus Christ, who offers a vision of life revealed to us in Sacred Scripture and Tradition. To echo the teaching of the Second Vatican Council: Christ, the Word made flesh, in showing us the Father's love, also shows us what it truly means to be human (see Gaudium et Spes, no. 22). Christ's love for us lets us see our human dignity in full clarity and compels us to love our neighbors as he has loved us. Christ, the Teacher, shows us what is true and good, that is, what is in accord with our human nature as free, intelligent beings created in God's image and likeness and endowed by the Creator with dignity and rights.

What faith teaches about the dignity of the human person and about the sacredness of every human life helps us see more clearly the same truths that also come to us through the gift of human reason. At the center of these truths is respect for the dignity of every person. This is the core of Catholic moral and social teaching. Because we are people of both faith and reason, it is appropriate and necessary for us to bring this essential truth about human life and dignity to the public square. We are called to practice Christ's commandment to "love one another" (Jn 13:34). We are also called to promote the well-being of all, to share our blessings with those most in need, to defend marriage, and to protect the lives and dignity of all, especially the weak, the vulnerable, the voiceless. In his first encyclical letter, Deus Caritas Est, Pope Benedict XVI explained that "charity must animate the entire lives of the lay faithful and therefore also their political activity, lived as 'social charity'".

JOINT ECUMENICAL COMMEMORATION OF THE REFORMATION

The Archdiocese of Ottawa will be hosting a joint commemoration of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation at Notre Dame Cathedral, Saturday, November 25, 12:00 pm. Archbishop Prendergast and Bishop Michael Pryse will preside as the prayer meeting is being organized by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese and the Lutheran Diocese. The service will follow the Common Prayer liturgical guide, based on the Lutheran-Catholic dialogue report From Conflict to Communion. A reception will follow in Cathedral Hall. All are invited.
