Word from the Pastor

Jesus said, "That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush when he called out 'Lord,' the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. God is not God of the dead, but of the living for to God all are alive." Jesus assures us is that what the Jewish people believed is true: we are in the hands of the living God and even death will not cause God to let go of us. Indeed, death will make our ties to God even stronger. Who are the people who are signs to us of eternal life? How are they such signs? How do I show my faith in the God of the living?

Archbishop Prendergast has appointed a seminarian to the Parish. John Orban will be with us until January when he returns to St. Augustine's Seminary to complete his final semester.
