Parenting tip for the month: In order to feel confident and connected, children need to feel that they belong. Their sense of belonging comes, in large part, from how they connect to their families – do they spend time together having fun, do they participate in chores and contribute to the household, do they have a sense of family values and traditions? As parents we need to be diligent in making sure our children feel a secure attachment within the family unit, so they can thrive when they venture away from us.

Word from the Pastor

God says to God's anointed, Cyrus..."I have called you by name, giving you a title, though you knew me not." Isaiah provides us with insight: God even uses non-believing humans to accomplish God's will. We see God's hand working through the gifts of others, "anointed" to do good. It is obvious that our God's good actions are not restricted to a church building, or to any one faith community. God works outside the box too. From our Baptism we have been anointed. To whom and where am I anointed by God to serve? Do I see the hand of God in those doing good who have no explicit faith?

The Priests' Retreat for Ottawa will be held this week (October 23-27). Please note there will be no weekday Masses Monday to Friday. The Retreat is being preached by Archbishop Prendergast, SJ and Bishop Riesbeck. The Office will be open at the regular times.

Archbishop Prendergast will ordain seminarian John Orban to the Order of Diaconate on Saturday November 11 at 5:00 pm. Everyone is welcome to attend this unique event for the Church and join in the Reception by the Knights of Columbus after in the Hall.

All Souls Day Envelopes are in the seats. Please write the names of your deceased family and loved ones and place the envelopes in the Offering basket on Sunday. The faithful departed will be remembered during November.
