WORLD MISSION SUNDAY OCTOBER 22 2017

Thank you for your generous response to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith on World Mission Sunday. It's a blessing for young dioceses, priests, sisters, brothers and catechists who depend on it. Please continue to pray for all who serve in mission countries that they may remain strong in faith and in their vocation as they go about proclaiming the good News of Christ.

Word from the Pastor

Jesus said... "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself." One place we try to fulfill Jesus' commandment of love is at our weekly liturgical celebration. We look for ways at this worship to concretize the love of neighbor. Here, we welcome the stranger in our midst and strive to be a sign of the unity the Eucharist calls us to be. In our parish we must integrate incoming groups into our liturgical and community celebrations and educational programs. Is God at my center, the inspiration and impetus behind my thoughts, feelings and actions? Who is the surprising neighbor Jesus is calling me to love? And how shall I share Jesus' love with that person(s)?

Monsignor Joseph Muldoon
