Word from the Pastor

In St. Mark's Gospel we read 'a man shall leave father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate. While our Church's marriage laws are meant to protect the institution of marriage for the common good, still, Jesus has taught mercy and forgiveness and in his ministry he kept persons primary. How then can the Church do the same? By holding fast to its current laws and restrictions? Or, while raising up the ideal, by also ministering to those wounded by their previous experiences in marriage, who now hope to start afresh in new relationships -- and still be full participants in the church? By their love and commitment to one another which married couples have witnessed to me the blessings of the sacrament of marriage? What can I do or say to give support to those who are struggling in their commitment to one another?

We are seeking an Admin. Assistant for the Office Monday and Tuesday 9-3 and Wednesday 9 to Noon. Please contact Msgr. Joseph Muldoon, with your resume at Pastor@holyspiritparish.ca

Registrations for Confirmation are due on Tuesday October 9. They can be left in the black mailbox at the entrance to the church or brought in to the office during our office hours 9 am – 3 pm M-F.

With Thanksgiving Day our grateful spirit urges us to be thankful for our faith and our service to all in need.
HAPPY THANKSGIVING

Monsignor Joseph Muldoon
