Word from the Pastor

And one of the lepers realizing he had been healed, returned glorifying God in a loud voice, and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him in the way St. Luke describes the Gospel scene. If, like that leper, we realize as we travel through life, that God has spontaneously reached out with healing and forgiveness and has raised us to the dignity of children in God's household -- and indeed that has already happened -- what other prayer need we say but, "Thank you"? Can we name a moment when we felt like an outsider and experienced Jesus' healing words? Is that something we need to give thanks about? In turn, who are the outsiders whom we must welcome into our lives and our community?

Here is a progress report on the home in Forest Creek which was built in 2000. It is a bright and sunny home and has needed some upgrades. Several new appliances have been added (washer, dryer and stove). New carpets have been installed for the stairs and lower level as well as window blinds on the main floor. Additional blinds will be added for the large windows in the living room. A new furnace will be installed this week. Thank you for your interest and ongoing support of this new venture and your generosity to the needs of the Parish.

Happy Thanksgiving to all!

Monsignor Joseph Muldoon

'THE CO-RESPONSIBILITY OF THE LAY FAITHFUL IN THE CHURCH AND THE WORLD':

A new document from The Episcopal Commission for Doctrine of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB). This pastoral letter explores the great responsibility of the laity in God's plan for the world, in which they are not simply collaborators of the clergy but are truly "co-responsible" for the Church's being and acting. It notes the unique mission of the laity as being "in the world" and transforming it from within through their life and witness.

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI - POPE FRANCIS' WORDS IN LAUDATO SI':

The Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi, patron saint of ecology, took place on Tuesday, October 4. In his encyclical, Pope Francis shared the following words: "I believe that Saint Francis is the example par excellence of care for the vulnerable and of an integral ecology lived out joyfully and authentically. He is the patron saint of all who study and work in the area of ecology, and he is also much loved by non-Christians. He was particularly concerned for God's creation and for the poor and outcast. He loved, and was deeply loved for his joy, his generous self-giving, his openheartedness. He was a mystic and a pilgrim who lived in simplicity and in wonderful harmony with God, with others, with nature and with himself. He shows us just how inseparable the bond is between concern for nature, justice for the poor, commitment to society, and interior peace." Let us follow the lead of St. Francis in promoting the healing of our common home.
