SMALL FAITH GROUP

Our parish's Thursday evening Small Faith Group will start again on September 26. We meet right after the 7pm Mass in the small boardroom. We are a small, friendly and relaxed group of Catholics who explore the meaning in our lives of the coming weekend's Gospel readings together. You are always welcome to join anytime. For more information, Louise Beggs at louisebeggs@icloud.com or 613-852-4469.

Everyone loves a beautiful place to worship.

The parish is planning to create a decorating committee to help beautify the inside of our church on special occasions such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and Pentecost. This will consist of a small commitment on your part and will benefit the entire parish community. To join or discuss, you may contact the parish office by phone or Pauline Foley at p.foley@sympatico.ca. Your time and talent would be greatly appreciated, and new ideas are always welcome.

Word from the Pastor

St. Luke 15: "Or what woman having ten coins and losing one would not light a lamp and sweep the house, searching carefully until she finds it?" Like the shepherd looking for the lost sheep, the woman expends great energy searching for her lost coin. Also, like the shepherd, when the lost object is found there is a joyful celebration with friends and neighbors. This parable offers a refreshing female image for our God who does not give up on us until we are found. Look around in your world: What person, or group of people, seem lost? What will you do about it?

Daily Catholic Wisdom

The follower of Christ does hear a music which does not reach the ears of other men; he is bound to be out of step with them, for they are out of step with it. But in our world we must listen to that music with unflagging attention – partly that it may not be drowned out of our own ears by all the tom-toms of chaos, partly that others may begin to catch from us first some hint of the rhythm, then some hint of the tune.
