LEADING THE ROSARY AT GRANITE RIDGE LTC

We are all called to evangelize! Not sure how to do that? Here is one simple way! Sign up to volunteer one hour a month on a Tuesday morning leading the recitation of the Rosary at Granite Ridge Long Term Care Facility. Given that you would simply be facilitating an "activity" at the residence, there is no need to go through the volunteer process! Simply come and pray with those in need! Please contact Shannon McGruer for more information shannonmcgruer@gmail.com

Word from the Pastor

From today's Isaiah reading: The Lord God is my help, therefore I am not disgraced. I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame. Doing the right thing doesn't guarantee we'll succeed. It's not about success, but about being faithful. But how can we be faithful when suffering is the price we sometimes must pay for doing what is right? What will keep us from yielding and turning in another direction? Isaiah has a piece of wisdom and assurance for us today, "The Lord God is my help, therefore I am not disgraced." Have I ever suffered or been penalized for doing what was right? What gave me the determination and strength to stay the course?

The Second Collection today is for Youth Ministry in the Parish. The estimated cost for this full time position with associated expenses is $45-50 thousand per year. Thank you for exercising wise stewardship of your resources and for supporting this worthy endeavour. There are now three full time employees and two part time people.

Monsignor Joseph Muldoon

A MESSAGE FROM THE YOUTH/SACRAMENTAL COORDINATOR

First off, thank you to all for the warm welcome you have been giving me into the parish so far.

I was born in Alberta but have grown up most of my life in Kanata North. I am the definition of a cradle catholic; prayer, mass and faith having always been very important to my family. I most notably have a sister who has just begun her novitiate with the Dominican nuns of Squamish but all three of my siblings are still involved in their faith life. I have always enjoyed working with children and youth and as my faith life went from my family's to my own, I orchestrated my life choices towards work in youth ministry. After finishing a degree in education in Alberta, I'm glad to be back in Ottawa and look forward to meeting and talking to you all about my vision for the young people of the parish.

We are trying to put together a team to help get our Youth programs up and running. Any parishioners who are high school aged or older who would like to volunteer please contact me by email youth@holyspiritparish.ca.

Lastly, we are looking for certain items to be donated for the Youth programs. Should you have any old costumes, arts and craft supplies, old sports equipment, board games or cardboard boxes that you are trying to get rid of, we will be able to put them to good use.

Jean-Pascal Moquin
