Development & Peace Corner
Nepal – One Year After The Earthquake
Combating Human Trafficking

In the aftermath of the earthquakes, women and children found themselves in situations of vulnerability, and the risk of human trafficking increased. Safe places like houses and schools were destroyed, and social networks that provide security were undermined. As such, Development and Peace is supporting:

- ⇒ Community training and awareness-raising of human trafficking;
- ⇒ Strengthening of village vigilance committees;
- ⇒ Services for victims of human trafficking.

EVERY LIFE MATTERS: A series of presentations on Euthanasia and Assisted Suicide, by Archbishop Richard Smith of Edmonton, some Palliative Care physicians and legal experts, will be shown this Tuesday and Wednesday, June 7th and 8th at St. Mary's Cathedral Parish Centre, 7 pm to 9 pm. These two sessions will address the topics of It's My Body, My Choice, I Don't Want to Suffer, and What Do we do Now? Where do we go from here? All are most welcome.

The first of the Spiritual Works of Mercy is to "Comfort the Sorrowful" In the Magnificat Year of Mercy Companion, pp 113-114, Father George Rutler writes, "No sorrow is more revealing and expressive of the bond of love than the sorrow one has for the suffering of another. To comfort someone else strengthens the self as much as the other. This was visible between Christ on the cross and Mary at the foot of the cross, comforting each other in the world's most horrible scene... Jesus gave his Mother to mankind as he was dying so that she might be our comforter in the tragic hours: "Pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death.""
