Catholic Education Week ~ Sunday May 1 to Friday May 6: This year's theme is Catholic Education: Opening Doors of Mercy. The disciples asked Jesus to 'increase our faith'. We know that keeping the faith alive is a constant challenge in the world of 2016. But we can be assured by the words of Jesus, "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy" (Matthew 5:7)

The sixth of the Spiritual Works of Mercy is to "Instruct the ignorant". In the Magnificat Year of Mercy Companion, pp 90-91, Father George Rutler writes "... stupidity has no cure, but ignorance can be solved simply by being informed. An intelligent wine merchant may be ignorant of the Third Law of Thermodynamics, while a learned physicist may be ignorant of the difference between a Burgundy and a Beaujolais. Our Lord had something more to teach, of which the human race had previously been ignorant, despite the consolations of wisdom and the hints of prophets. It was the good news about himself, and no one anywhere should be deprived of it: "Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature" (Mk 16:15)"
