The students who have registered for First Holy Communion will also be allowed to attend with their families, keeping to the maximum of 10 people, including priest. All will be contacted by the parish office beforehand.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will continue Thursdays from 1 to 5 pm, with a maximum of 10 adorers at one time. The parish office is closed, but phone messages are checked regularly.

First Holy Communion 2021

From the spring of the year 2020 to the present, the Sacramental celebration of First Holy Communion has not been possible for the whole class of students with their families in church, due to the Covid-19 pandemic. The students now in grade 3 have had to wait almost a year to receive Holy Communion. Both St. John the Apostle Parish and Holy Family Parish are celebrating First Holy Communion for the grade 2 and 3 students at regular weekend Masses with 2 or 3 First Holy Communicants with their families at their preferred Mass.

Omari Antonio Couto and Abbey Brennan will celebrate their First Holy Communion on Sunday May 2nd
Noah Down-Elliott and Gavin Boone will celebrate their First Holy Communion on Sunday May 9th

God bless these and all First Communicants and their families!
