The seventh of the Spiritual Works of Mercy is to "Counsel the doubtful" In the Magnificat Year of Mercy Companion, pp 98-99, Father George Rutler writes, "'Counsel' means helping to make a decision... Blessed John Henry Newman distinguished the rejection of sound counsel from those sensible questions we have about God ... But a decision must be made ... Robert Frost had his own counsel: Two roads diverged in a wood, and I -

I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

The way that is Christ is less traveled by in our world, but walking along it makes all the difference and resolves all doubt. And his name will be called "Wonderful Counselor ..." (Is 9:5)."
